At DeWitt's End

(copied from In Touch Ministries, <https://www.intouch.org/Read/Magazine/daily-devotions/the-process-of-forgiving>)

(Matthew 6:12)

"and forgive us our sins, as we have forgiven those who sin against us."

"Forgiving those who have seriously hurt us is one of our most challenging assignments as believers. And merely having a desire to obey God or say the right words does not necessarily accomplish the task. Old memories and pain can slip back into the mind, stirring up emotions of anger and injustice."

"Though we have a responsibility to take the initiative soon after suffering harm, forgiveness for deep hurts is a process. Begin immediately to prevent a root of bitterness from developing. But remember: The deeper the hurt, the more time it will take to work through forgiveness. Never become discouraged – the Lord will walk with you each step of the way."

"Confession to God is the beginning of the process. Come before Him, admitting any resentment and acknowledging it as sin. As you lay your anger and hurt before the Lord, let Him begin to heal your broken heart."

"Sometimes the process can also involve going to the offender and confessing your sinful attitude toward him or her. This is a time not to build your case or itemize the culprit's wrongs but simply to admit your own. Although the offense against you may seem greater than your unforgiving attitude, avoid the temptation to rank sins. And leave judgment to God."

"Forgiveness brings freedom from the agitation that accompanies resentment. In working through the process, you'll begin to see through God's eyes—and with His compassion—when you look at the person who hurt you. Eventually, you will be able to thank the Lord for the opportunity to learn forgiveness and live in His lavish grace."

Sunday Morning Worship 9:30 a.m.
Pastor: Dan DeWitt

Tuesday Bible Study: Beginning January 9, Pastor Dan will start a new study on what the Bible teaches about heaven. He will use the following book as a primary resource: Heaven by Randy Alcorn. The class will start at 7:00 p.m. in his home. All are welcome.

Coming Sermons:

Nov. 5 “Yes, Here I Am” Acts 8:26-38

Phillip had enjoyed the spotlight, but now God sent him down a lonely stretch of road. He obeyed and God did powerful things through him because he said “yes!” Are you willing to say “yes, here I am” if God sends you down a lonely road?

Nov. 12 “Follow The Leader” John 15:16-17

It is not always easy to understand God’s will or to know what path He would have us take. But He has told us how to do it: follow the leader!

Nov. 19 “United As One” John 17:20-23

The closer we get spiritually to God, the closer we get to those who love and follow Jesus. Our unity is a tremendous testimony of God and His power in our lives.

Nov. 26 “Experience His Glory” John 17:24-26

When properly understood, “Church” isn’t about promoting a particular building, group or denomination. “Church” is about introducing people to God and helping them experience His glory.
